

PROCLAIMS FLAG DAY HERE DEC. 6

Mayor Urges All Citizens to Enroll Stars and Stripes on Opening of Congress.

HEARTY RESPONSE IS EXPECTED

Asks That Colors Be Hoisted on Homes, Business Houses and Factories.

Mayor McConchie today proclaimed Monday, Dec. 6, flag day in Rock Island. Observance is asked by the American Defense society to mark the opening of congress.

All citizens are urged by the mayor to fly the stars and stripes from their homes, and a like request is made of business houses and factories. The mayor today received a letter from John E. Hubbard, chairman of the committee on arrangements of the National Defense society. It is as follows:

"Monday, Dec. 6, the opening day of congress, is named by the American Defense society as defense day in the United States. It is the most timely occasion to hold mass meetings and address letters and telegrams to congressmen in behalf of a better national defense."

Cooperation Invited. In order to make the occasion an impressive one the American Defense society requests the cooperation of mayors of cities and asks that they designate the day as flag day over their municipalities, on which day all will be in favor of a greater national defense are urged to show such belief by hanging out flags from their homes.

"At the same time the American Defense society is distributing a card appeal to be signed by voters and sent to their congressmen and senators in favor of an adequate national defense."

Local lodge No. 988, I. O. O. F. initiated a class of 10 candidates to the first and second degrees, at the meeting held Thursday evening to the temple. At the close of the work a social time was enjoyed and an oyster supper was served. The regular meeting will be held next Thursday evening but because it falls on Thanksgiving day, no initiatory work will be put on.

HAS SCHEME FOR ENFORCING PEACE

Eliot H. Goodwin.

Eliot H. Goodwin, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, has sent to all the trade organizations of this country and the American Chambers of Commerce in Berlin, Paris, Milan and Constantinople a referendum embodying six recommendations for settling disputes between nations and enforcing world order.

These recommendations are that the United States take steps toward bringing about a conference of neutrals to frame laws for the protection of life at sea; an international court to decide disputes between nations; a court of conciliation for questions outside the jurisdiction of the international court; economic pressure against nations resorting to arms of the court; military force in case economic measures are ineffective; and finally international references for necessary amendment of international law.

PEANUTS APPEARS BEFORE MOLINERS

Local Boxer Exchanges Light Taps With Young Speckman at Moline Club Stage—Stumpy Is There.

Peanuts Schiebler of this city and Young Speckman last evening entertained members of the Moline club with a tango dance. The occasion was a star for club members and Schiebler and Speckman had agreed to give an exhibition of the newly art of self defense. Neither of the boys was disposed to mix things and they stepped through six rounds wearing broad smiles, exchanging an occasional tap on each other's ribs. The bout, it is said, was intended more as a scientific exhibition and the fans seemed perfectly satisfied, though there were some who suggested to the millers "a little more speed."

It remained for "Stump" Goodwin, who hustles baggage at the Manufacturers' hotel of nights, to produce the real thriller of the evening. He was scheduled to box 10 rounds with one Clyde Harrison of St. Louis. Though outwitted, Stumpy fought valiantly and in the fourth frame struck his opponent in a manner that caused the gentleman from Missouri to rest unmindful of his defeat on the canvas.

H. A. DeWolf was the third man in the ring.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Cicero-Literary society held its regular weekly meeting at the high school last evening. The program was to have been given the night before, but on account of the inclement weather and the consequent small attendance of 15, it was thought best to postpone the program. The meeting was attended by 30 young men.

The program rendered was as follows: Victrola selection. Humorous stories—Erl Metcalf. Declaration—Roy Johnson. A bit of humor—Clifford Myers. Debate: "Resolved, that each president should be limited to one term of six years in the presidency." Affirmative, Robert E. Olmsted; negative, Vernon Hallgren. After the program a business meeting was held and it was decided to have the regular business meeting of the association on the first Friday of each month. The association also decided to affiliate with the Mothers' Congress and with the Parent-Teacher association of the state. A social time was enjoyed after the meeting and the association was served delicious refreshments by the mothers in its membership.

In this way it is hoped to have a helpful and pleasing service and also to raise the necessary funds.
